Loosemoissanite.com is a Flagship brand associated with providing the finest variety of moissanite in all shapes and sizes.

We started our operation in crafting these beautiful jewels since 2010. Our company is equipped with two facilities that are wholly devoted to crafting genuine loose moissanite and jewellery.

Besides our cutting and polishing facilities, we are also making the largest variety of jewelry moissanite in sterling silver and gold.

The major jewelry product we deal in includes engagement rings, wedding rings, pendants, bracelet, necklace, and customized jewelry articles.

We mostly make this jewelry in 10k/14k/18k white gold, rose gold, yellow gold, and 925 sterling silver. Our inhouse facility allows us to make the finest quality and rare variety of bespoke jewelry. We might need just your design/ sketch, photo or link in order to make the same piece that you want at a lesser price.

As loose moissanite along with jewelry is made inhouse, the customer can have huge saving when they purchase from us. Our customer often tells that it cost them up to 40% lesser when they buy from us as compared to local retail stores.

To this date, we have served clients in USA, UK, UAE, Switzerland, Thailand, China, Japan, and more than 25 countries. We urge you to give us a chance to serve you to make lasting memory for you and your loved once.
